Bangalore,
24th August 1912.

Dear Mr: Raghavendra Rao,

I am now able to give you the following few particulars regarding Pandit Dorbuli Jindas Sastri of Sravanabelagola, referred to in your D O letter No. 161 of the 21st Instant. He was, and probably now also is, Adhyaksha of the Sanskrit School at Sravanabelagola. The list of aided educational Institutions in the State shows him, on the 1st July 1911, as manager of the said School, which enjoys a grant-in-aid of Rs 30 per mensem from the State Funds.

In 1899 he moved the question, with the Inspector General of Education, of the admission of Jain Students of his School to the annual Examinations of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore in Sahitya and other Secular Subjects. This resulted in the decision of Government that the Students of the said School may be admitted to the Examinations in Sahitya and other Subjects, excepting the Vedas and the Upanishads. Again, in 1904 Jinadas Sastri applied for admission to the Sanskrit College at Mysore for purposes of Study, but the Government passed orders in 1906 regretting their inability to comply with his request.

We again had a petition from him in 1909, though on a different subject.

In August of that year he asked that a sum of Rs. 100/- per annum, being 'Sastra dana amount, may be continued to him as before from the Sarvamanya Sravanabelagola and other villages. This petition was sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan for report in September 1909, but I regret it has not yet fetched a reply from that Officer. The petition is therefore pending, but Timdas has not reminded us again in the matter.

I am sending copies of the marginally noted letters etc. relative to the facts detailed above, as they may possibly be of use to you as references

Finally, I may add

1. Docket No. 8224/2186 of 10.4.99 from the D. C. of Bangalore to the Secy Maharaja's Sanskrit College committee.
2. Letter No. 797/Mowz. 25-92 dated 24-1-00 from the Mowzain Secy to the President of the College Committee
3. G. O. No. 4549-51 of 7.4.06.
4. Mfl. memo No. 652/Mowz. 168-09-2 dated 3.9.09 to Dy. Comr. Hassan that I expected to get some further particulars today regarding the present place of residence occupation etc. of the Pandit, but I am sorry I have not got them yet. When I do get such later information, I shall communicate the same to you without delay

With kind regards,

I am,

Yours Sincerely,

B. S. Ramaswamaiya

Dear Mr Raghavendrachar

In continuation of my previous letters I write to give you the following particulars re Pandit Jinadas Sastri. He is a resident of Sravanbelagola, a respectable person and Adhyaksha of the grant-in-aid Sanskrit School there. He was for some time editing a monthly journal Sanatana Dharma Pataka relating to matters of the Jain religion. His father was a matt Pandit, and was getting Rs 100 annually ~~Rs 100~~ from the matt His sons have been
